PNGMPHSL BACKS CANCONEX 2023 AS PLATINUM SPONSOR

Support continues to grow for the inaugural Community Affairs and National Content Conference and Expo (CANCONEX), with leading landowner company, PNG Mining And Petroleum Hospitality Services Limited (PNGMPHSL) showing its support as a Platinum Sponsor for the national landowner event.

Formed in 2015, PNGMPHSL is a fully owned Papua New Guinea based company owned by landowners from Kutubu, Gobe, Gigira, Kikori and Moran, that prides itself in providing quality and highly effective safety-focused support services throughout the nation. Today, PNGMPHSL operates in several locations throughout PNG serving an average of over 8,500 meals per day.

Through their support, PNGMPHSL will be the official caterer to over 500 delegates on the final day of CANCONEX (Wednesday August 30th, 2023).

In welcoming PNGMPHSL's support to CANCONEX, PNG Chamber of Mines and Petroleum President Anthony Smaré spoke highly of the landowner company, which has become a leader in the hospitality space, especially within the resource industry.

“CANCONEX 2023, as the inaugural national landowner conference & expo provides an opportunity for all project area landowners from across the country and other PNG businesses to come together, share their experiences, and expand their networks to see where they can all partner in areas of mutual interest to support each other to maximize opportunities for project developments.

The PNGMPHSL story is one of how multiple landowner companies within the resources industry, from can unite under one entity, to expand and improve their services, strengthen their brand, and in turn increase profitability to provide better returns for landowners – theirs is the story which will be shared with other landowners at CANCONEX.

As a Platinum Sponsor, PNGMPHSL will be providing their world-class catering services to attendees on the final day of the event, which will include the closing dinner, which will highlight the offerings from across their shareholding from Southern Highlands to Gulf Province, which will be a memorable experience for all who will attend.

The Chamber thanks PNGMPHSL Chairman Peter Heno, CEO Jonathan Corotan, Management and staff for supporting CANCONEX, and we look forward to partnering with PNGMPHSL for a successful event.”
